

International BUILDAIR Symposium 2023

Instructions for the download version (long version) of your paper

After the conference, detailed papers will be made available for download on the conference website for the lectures held during the International BUILDAIR symposium. For the purposes of uniform appearance, we ask you to format your text according to the layout file.

Language

The text must be written in English or German.

Length

The download version should have 5-10 pages in length.

Headers and footers

Please do not insert any page numbers, we will do that while inserting the headers. Finally, we convert the article into a PDF.

Final Check

Please check your paper carefully before submission. Once your paper is completed, we recommend running a spell check program through the text.

Submitting your download version

File formats: paper incl. illustrations: .doc, .docx, .rtf, .odt separate illustrations (if necessary): .tif, .jpg, .png
Deadline: Please send us the full paper before May 19, 2023.
